CAPE COD COUNCIL of CHURCHES

For over 60 years, the Cape Cod Council of Churches has served low-income individuals and families throughout Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket. Our mission, "Serving God by Serving Others", directs our many programs that touch the lives of over 7,500 Cape and Island residents every year without regard for religious affiliation.

Free Period Supply Support

An effort to end
Period Poverty on
Cape Cod and the Islands

Made available through

A Baby Center

a program of the Cape Cod Council of Churches

The Initiative

To provide low income clients in need of period supplies with menstrual products. We maintain dignity by offering period supplies, and education, to eliminate the stigma around periods, menstrual products, and period conversations. Services are provided for free and without the regard for religious affiliation.

Items May Vary

According to donations

We Provide

Clients may receive period supplies once every 30 days. At your visit we will offer you a variety of period supply items including but not limited to tampons, pads, liners, and panties in an assortment of sizes. You can fill out a discrete needs card at the time of your visit.

The Dottie Welcome Kit

Each new Dottie Welcome kit includes a discrete zipper bag for you to carry your supplies, assorted period supplies, two undies, and cleansing wipes. After you register with the program you may come back once every 30 days for supplies.

A reminder that product is available as it is donated.
